AAA EXHIBIT AT FAIR TO BE EXPLAINED BY FARMERS

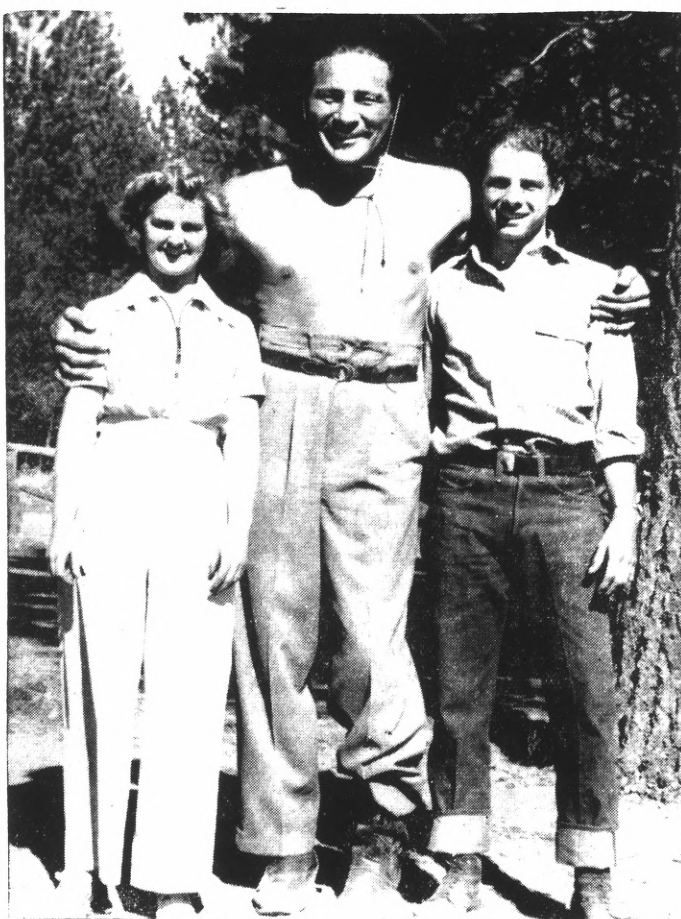

Agricultural conservation and marketing activities in California and the nation as a whole will be shown in an exhibit by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration at the California State Fair which opened in Sacramento today.

Ralph J. Pitkin, Red Bluff rancher, and Robert Wilson, San Fernando Valley farmer, members of the California Agricultural Conservation Committee, will be on hand during the fair week to explain to farmers and others interested, these activities of the national farm program which affect California agriculture.

The exhibit is being sponsored by the state committee, whose chairman is David J. Davidson, Tulare cotton grower. Other members of the committee include George Wilson, sugar beet producer at Clarksburg, and B. H. Crocker, director of the California Agricultural Extension Service, who is an ex-officio member. State committee headquarters are at Berkeley, with W. B. Parker, as state executive officer.

Charles I. Martin of Georgetown, was a caller in Placerville, Friday.

MAX BAER, former world's heavyweight champ, now in training for what he says will be a successful comeback to regain the crown, is shown here keeping apart (for the moment at least) Rosemary Hicks and Donnie Calicula of Placerville. Maxie is hardening up in the pure air at Lake Tahoe for his next scrap.

JURY SELECTED IN KRAMP BURGLARY CASE TODAY

The trial of Mary Kramp, charged with burglary, was continued in Superior Court this morning following a recess Thursday to permit summoning an additional venire of twenty-five. Completion of the jury was had shortly before noon, and taking of evidence was started by prosecution attorneys Henry S. Lyon and Robert E. Roberts. Only one witness, Frank Gardner, who is the complaining witness in the case, was called to the stand and at the noon recess had not been cross-examined by the defense.

Mrs. Kramp, according to District Attorney Lyon, is charged with theft of a number of articles from the ranch house of Gardner of Kelsey.

Members of the jury include: William F. Blodgett, William Baumhoff, William Lehman, Roy C. Arling, Abbie Carsten, Adele Engstrom, William J. White, Wilmer Bradshaw, Nettie Forni, Lloyd Hill and John P. Nelson.

Lyon stated today the case probably would go to the jury sometime Saturday.

Mrs. Kramp is represented by Attorneys Hale Day of Placerville, and R. C. Fleming, Sacramento.

Historical Society Holds Meeting

Session For Next Thursday Plans Adoption Of By-Laws And Constitution

Members of the Historical Society, newly formed local organization, met Thursday evening in the Superior Court room and a report from Wallace M. Ripley, secretary of the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce, on the recent annual meeting of the El Dorado County Reunion Association at Oakland, telling of the purposes of the new group here. He pointed out to them that this body is sponsored by the chamber of commerce and hopes primarily to soon be able to secure a home for the many fast-disappearing relics of early-day El Dorado County.

A committee is at work drawing up constitution and by-laws for the historical body and it is expected adoption of these will be part of the business of a meeting set for Thursday night, September 8, at the courthouse.

All interested persons are invited to attend this session, according to Cecil A. Barker, who presided at last night's meeting in the absence of temporary chairman E. E. Van Harlingen.

A motion was unanimously carried that the temporary chairman appoint a nominating committee of three to prepare a list of names to fill permanent offices, the same to be elected at the general meeting of the organization next Thursday. Posts to be filled include:

President, vice-president, recording secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer and four directors, two of whom shall be elected to serve two years and two to serve one year.

The message, delivered to the reunion association at Oakland, in pamphlet form, follows:

"The purpose of this message is to acquaint you, who no longer reside in El Dorado County, with a movement which is being sponsored by the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce.

"On Friday, August 5, a group of sincere residents, representing some thirty-two civic, fraternal, and service organizations met in the county courthouse. The object of this meeting was to form an El Dorado County Historical Society, which would thereby provide a responsible organization to collect and preserve historical relics, historical data, and information about El Dorado County and her people.

"The organization is now well under way and receiving enthusiastic support

HUGE CROWD AT FAIR EXPECTED

Opening Today Finds City
Crammed to Limit
By Visitors

SACRAMENTO, 41—Officials forecast a record opening crowd today as the California State Fair opened its 241st season. The exposition closes September 11.

Visitors from all sections of California crowded hotels to capacity. Downtown streets were jammed as spectators viewed a miniature circus parade which featured Children's Day at the Fair.

Judging in both junior and senior sections began in the livestock divisions. More than 1,000 4-H Club members came from their annual convention at Davis, many of whom had entries in this division as did hundreds of Future Farmers of America.

Meanwhile, Fair officials announced a program of special events for Women's Day next Wednesday.

The day will honor the oldest lady present, feature a women's long hair contest, a fashion show and a flower arranging exhibition. A patriotic pageant will be offered during the morning.

Governor Frank F. Merriam will be guest of honor at a luncheon honoring officers and members of leading women's organizations in California, to be held at noon next Wednesday in the new $200,000 Merriam assembly hall. Winners of the long hair contest will be decided at the luncheon.

Early opening day arrivals displayed interest in the horse racing program highlighted by the inaugural handicap, $1,000 added, for three-year-olds and up. Ariel Cross, from the stables of C. S. Howard, owner of Seabiscuit, was an early favorite.

The first day's events also honored 4-H Club members and the California Farm Bureau Federation.

Two expert horsemen, William Tevis, California sportsman, and Cliff Gardner, Nevada roundup champion, were expected late today to finish a race from Carson City to Sacramento along the historic old route over the high Sierra. The race, which began at 3 this morning, will conclude in front of the grandstand where Governors Merriam of California and Kirman of Nevada were to greet the winner.

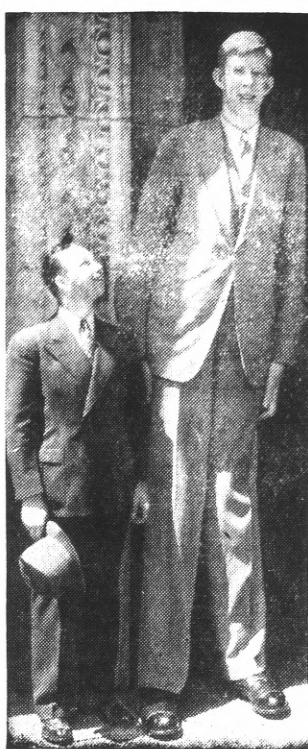

Record attendance marks also were predicted for the three-day week-end holiday. Officials said between 45,000 and 50,000 persons were expected tomorrow and possibly 100,000 visitors each on Sunday and Labor Day.

LUMBER FIRM AT CAMINO OPERATES TWO RAIL LINES

Comparatively little is known about the early days of the Michigan-California Narrow Gauge Lines, reports the California-Nevada Historical Society.

It was built at about the turn of the century by the El Dorado Lumber Co. in much the same manner as the Diamond and Caldor Railway. The company's mill was and is located at Pino Grande, in a remote spot in the mountains but near the timber stand. The logs are brought into the mill, cut into the required shapes and sizes of lumber, and then loaded onto lumber flats. Trains of flats are made up as they accumulate and are brought over winding, twisting, turning, curving line of narrow-gauge track to the brink of the American River Canyon. Here they are carried across the mighty chasm by the unique cable-ferry.

One of the novel features about the line is the fact that there are actually two railroads operated as one, which might account for the use of 'Lines' in the pike's name. The long line extends from the mill at Pino Grande to the cable-ferry, while another nine-mile line operates from the ferry to the storage yards at Camino. There are separate sheds and shops for the logs on the opposite side of the river, while the 'lines' on the Camino side are serviced near the shops of the Camino, Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST—8 foot, 8 1/2-inch Robert Wadlow, Alton, Ill., will appear at the California State Fair and Exposition at Sacramento today and Saturday. The 20-year-old giant weighing 485 pounds, will take part in a children's parade and miniature circus. Both days are Children's Days when those under 16 are admitted to the Fair free.

Colored Ghosts Here Saturday Night

Directors of the softball league announced this morning that the famous Colored Ghosts, of Sioux City, Iowa, will return to the local diamond for a second game with the all-stars, otherwise known as the El Dorado Pioneers, Saturday night. The return, according to officials of the league, is by popular request of hundreds of fans who witnessed the game between the two teams several weeks ago, and scores of others who were unable to see that contest.

It was pointed out that due to the large crowd expected, additional seating capacity will be made available for the occasion by supplying temporary benches along the side lines. On the occasion of the first exhibition of the Ghosts many arriving late were able to find only standing room.

The Ghosts are reported to be on a tour of the country and are said to be undefeated as yet. Score of the previous game was: Ghosts, 2, Pioneers 1.

A preliminary game will be between the Diamond Springs girls and the girls team from Auburn, starting promptly at 7:30 p. m.

LIONS ENTERTAIN FOLSOM NINE AT AUBURN SUNDAY

COLFAX—The Colfax Lions will entertain the Folsom club on the Auburn diamond Sunday afternoon, in the second game of the Placer-Nevada League's championship series. Should Colfax win the game it will be the first time that this city has won a pennant in the Placer-Nevada circuit since it was organized in 1923.

Ray Brock will be the starting twirler for the Lions with Art Quadros behind the plate while August Lippert, Folsom southpaw, is scheduled to oppose the Colfax batters with Walter Jorgensen behind the plate.

Umpires Galli and Beves will handle the contest which is scheduled to start at 2:30 p. m.

Elmer Stoltz of the Raffles Garage has just returned from San Francisco where an advanced showing of the new 1939 Plymouth and Chrysler automobiles was held. Mr. Stoltz states that the new cars should be on display at his garage not later than September 25, although the Plymouth may have a local showing a little earlier in the month.

Gov. Merriam Calls National Guard For Victim And
Two Desperadoes

By JACK ABBOTT
United Press Staff Correspondent

MARYSVILLE, Calif., Sept. 2.—(AP)—California National Guardsmen and operatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation joined with local authorities today in a grim search for two desperadoes who kidnaped Mrs. W. R. Meeks, 55, from her ranch home at Rio Oso, 19 miles southeast of Marysville, at midnight last night.

Aroused by the crime, Governor Merriam in an almost unprecedented move, ordered out Companies F and H, 184th Infantry, California National Guard, from Marysville and Yuba City, to track down and capture the kidnapers.

Immediately afterward Nat J. Pieper, chief of the San Francisco division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, left with three agents for the Meeks home.

Deputies disclosed two suspects had been captured in a city near Marysville but declined details until they established definitely whether they were involved in the case. Deputies said these suspects "had been out all night." The suspects, deputies added, admitted this, but insisted they had been to Stockton, in an entirely different direction from Marysville.

Authorities also disclosed they feared Mrs. Meeks may have already been murdered. They said parties were searching the bottoms of the Bear and the Feather rivers, near the Meeks home, for her body.

The kidnapers, masked behind white handkerchiefs, smashed their way into the Meeks home at pistol point after knocking at the door, overpowered Meeks, prominent rancher, trussed him with rope and adhesive tape and fled with Mrs. Meeks.

Meeks reported that as the kidnapers left they said:

"We know all about the electric chair but we will contact you in a couple of days for $15,000."

Reference to "electric chair" caused authorities to believe the kidnapers were from outside the state as California uses the lethal gas chamber for capital punishment. Previously the state used the gallows.

Sheriff Bert Ulrey, of Sutter County, in which Rio Oso is located, said footprints indicated the kidnapers waited in an orchard near the ranch house for the departure of guests who visited the Meeks last night.

Rio Oso is a small hamlet of four or five buildings.

It is a trading center for a rich ranch and farming area.

Meeks said he thought the kidnapers' knocking at the front door was by guests who were returning.

"We were sitting listening to the radio," Meeks reported. "It was about midnight. 'We looked up and there were two men pointing pistols at us. Their faces were masked by white handkerchiefs. All we could see were their eyes."

"They told us to lie down on the floor. Then they took rolls of adhesive tape from their pockets and plastered the stuff across our mouths. Next they tied our hands and feet with rope and some stray pieces of clothing they found in the house."

"One of the men stood guard over us while the other went through the house from top to bottom."

"That took quite a few minutes. When it was over, the men yanked my wife to her feet, untied the rope around her ankles and started dragging her out."

"You'll get your wife back when we get $15,000. We know all about the electric chair but we'll contact you in a couple of days for $15,000."

"After they'd gone I squirmed around on the floor, trying to get free of the rope."

"It must have been half an hour before I finally got my hands loose. I yanked the adhesive off my mouth and called the sheriff's office at Yuba City."

Marysville Woman Kidnaped

It was some time before he could make clear what happened.

"He kept screaming, 'They've got my wife!'" the sheriff said.

Sheriff Ulrey said tracks showed the kidnapers, upon departure of the guests from the Meeks home, went to the garage, took the Meeks' automobile and went to the front door. They used this machine to flee with Mrs. Meeks.

Four hours later the Meeks' automobile was found on G street, between third and fourth streets, in downtown Marysville. The gasoline tank, which held four gallons when it was stolen, was empty.

The car also contained Mrs. Meeks' purse and glasses.

Meeks said that $5 he knew had been in the purse, had been stolen.

Posses traced the flight of the fugitives to a point several miles south of Rio Oso, in the direction of Sacramento. Then the tracks swerved to a side road, and eventually led northbound on another road to Marysville.

Sheriff Ulrey believed the kidnapers stole another machine, in which they transferred Mrs. Meeks, to "cross up" their pursuers.

Meeks is a well-to-do orchardist, but not wealthy. Mrs. Meeks, whose first name is Norma, is a slender woman, five feet, two inches in height, 110 pounds weight. She is a well-known Yuba city and Marysville club woman.

Mrs. Meeks was wearing a navy blue flowered chiffon dress and black shoes, Meeks reported. The Meeks have two daughters, married to brothers. They are Mrs. O. N. Hunzicker, Marysville and Mrs. Paul Hunzicker, Goodrich.

Meeks described the kidnapers as young men, about 24, five feet nine inches tall. He said both wore blue jeans. He said one talked with "a distinct Southern drawl."

New Model Plane Mark Being Checked

HOUSTON, Tex., The National Aeronautical Association is checking the claim of Carl Phoenix, Galveston, for a new world's endurance record for his model airplane.

Under N. A. A. rules and supervision, Phoenix's gasoline-powered model, Miss America, stayed aloft 46 minutes and 5 seconds, compared with the previous record of 26 minutes.

SAFETY RECORD MARRED
CHICKASHA, Okla. (U)—Seven more blocks and Mrs. A. C. Nakles would have been home without a mishap from 3,000-mile automobile trip. Her car collided with another machine as she neared her residence on her return from Buffalo, N. Y.

The fourth annual Colusa County Harvest Festival will be held Oct. 6-9.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Placerville, Bedford Avenue at Union Street.

Services, 11 a. m. Sunday School 9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening. Testimonial Meeting 8 p. m.
The reading room at the church building is open Tuesday and Friday from 2 o'clock until 4 o'clock.

"Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee." These words from Psalms comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, September 4, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Man." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art not more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ" (Gal. 4: 6, 7).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "The foundation of mortal discord is a false sense of man's origin. To begin rightly is to end rightly. Every concept which seems to begin with the brain begins falsely. Divine Mind is the only cause or principle of existence" (p. 262).

FEDERATED CHURCH H. G. Morehouse

9:45 a. m. Sunday School theme: Samuel; Spiritual Revival. "Direct your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him only." I Sam. 7:3.

11:00 a. m. Morning worship. Theme: Workmen That Need Not to be Ashamed. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." II Timothy 2:15.

7:00 p. m. High School and Young People's Society.

8:00 p. m. Evening worship. The pastor will consider the following questions:

IF SO, WHY?
Why does not God always answer prayer even the prayer of Jests?

Why don't people agree on religion like they do on mathematics?

Why does God allow people to be hurt?

Why did not prayer stop the World War?

Why is a Christian any more fortunate than others?

Why don't we receive "whatsoever" we ask as was promised?

Why did not God prevent Solomon from disgracing himself?

Why do Christians seek to protect themselves?

Why do Christians turn to human aid, take out insurance and try to make and save money?

Why are churches often destroyed and saunas saved?

Why not have a prayer contest to see which religion is right as in the days of Elijah?

Why did God not protect His own as in the case of Abel, Steven and Jesus himself?

Why did God forsake Jesus?

Why did Jesus have to die for sin?

from those now acquainted with the work. A few years ago this county abounded with many valuable historical records and relics of the early mining days. Today, due to pilferage, fire and out-of-county collectors, much of this valuable heritage is being lost.

"El Dorado County is in immediate need of a suitable fire-proof building to house the historical relics still left in the county and to perpetuate the memory of the early pioneers of this region.

"At the Historical Society's meeting early in September, immediate plans will be launched to acquire a site and building that will carry out the purpose of this organization.

"The funds necessary to accomplish this program, in which we believe you will be in hearty accord, will be secured through popular subscription. Information concerning further developments of the project can be secured by communicating with Wallace M. Ripley, Secretary of the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce, Placerville. Sincerely, Reuel V. Whigham, President El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce."

Kate Wiggin's Classic At Empire Sunday-Monday

Recognized as one of the foremost women writers in the realm of American literature, the late Kate Douglas Wiggin was the author of "Mother Carey's Chickens," now brought to the screen in a faithful filmization with all the original sweetness and down-to-earth sentiment of the classic. It will be shown at the Empire Sunday and Monday.

Ann Shirley, Ruby Keeler and James Ellison head the cast in "Mother Carey's Chickens," which has become a "standard" book in the past two decades. Originally published as part of a trilogy of "best sellers" which included "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" and "The Birds' Christmas Carol," "Mother Carey's Chickens" has been serialized as a successful play by Mrs. Wiggin and Rachel Crothers.

The popular "Hopalong Cassidy" cast, headed by William Boyd, George Hayes and Russell Hayden, will return to town in another of Clarence E. Mulford's roaring stories of high adventure in the Southwestern cattle country. "Bar 20 Justice," which opens Saturday at the Empire Theatre.
